AHS GIRLS WIN AWARDS

Suzy Crigler was the winner of the Betty Crocker Award.

The Home Economics Award was given to Danielle Cline.

The F.H.A. girl of the year was Debbie Barton.

Planning the Beta trip involved much thought.

Pickin' toe-jam again, eh, Mary?!

Have you all heard the one about . . . ?

Betas have mixed emotions upon departure from St. Louis.

BETA CONVENTION WAS A FAR-OUT TRIP!

When the Sheraton-Jefferson saw our gang, they almost deleted the "welcomes!"

"Dear Mom, I forgot to pack my teddy bear."

This place is a real gas!!

STUDENTS PREPARE FOR SCIENCE FAIR

Larry Williams assists Duane in loading the projects.

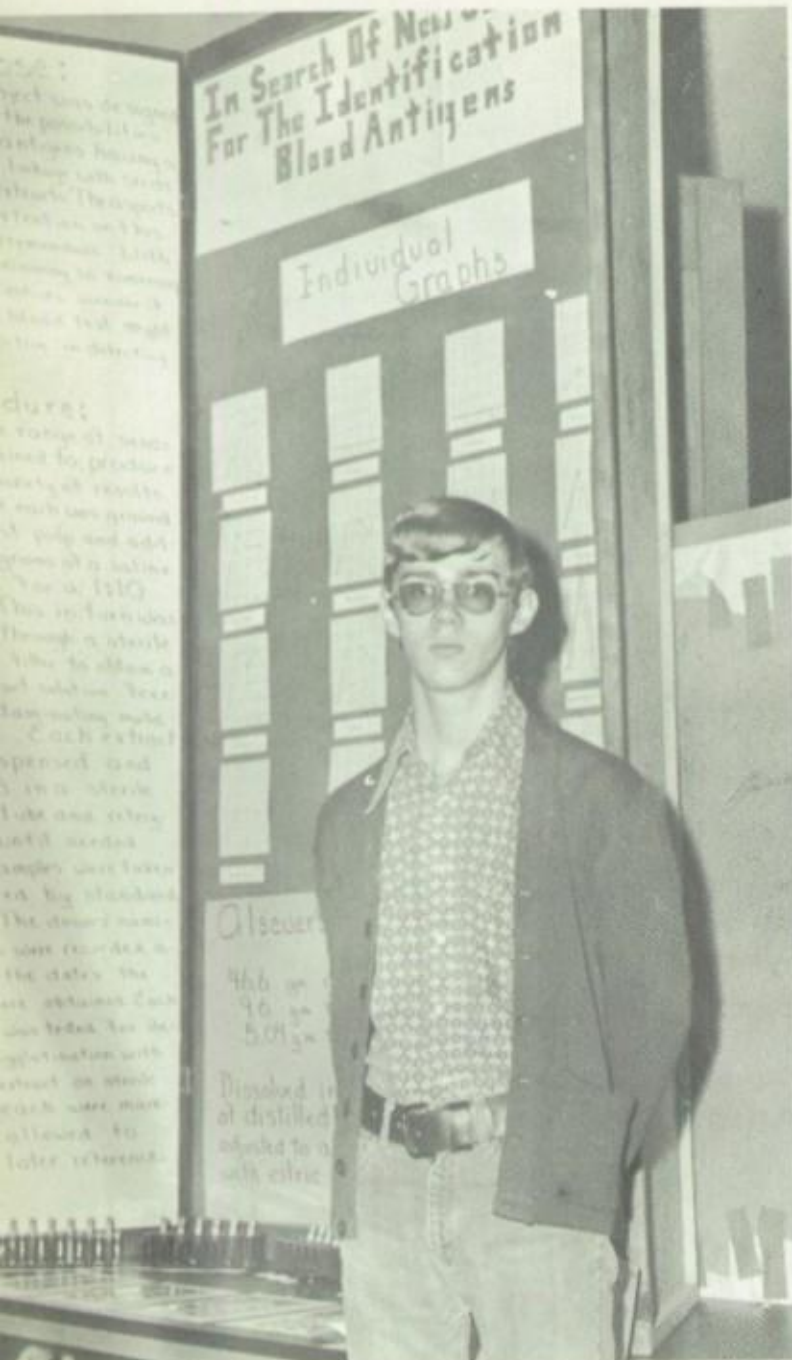

Did you say the SNAKE is loose ??? BELOW: Duane McGary works on last-minute details.

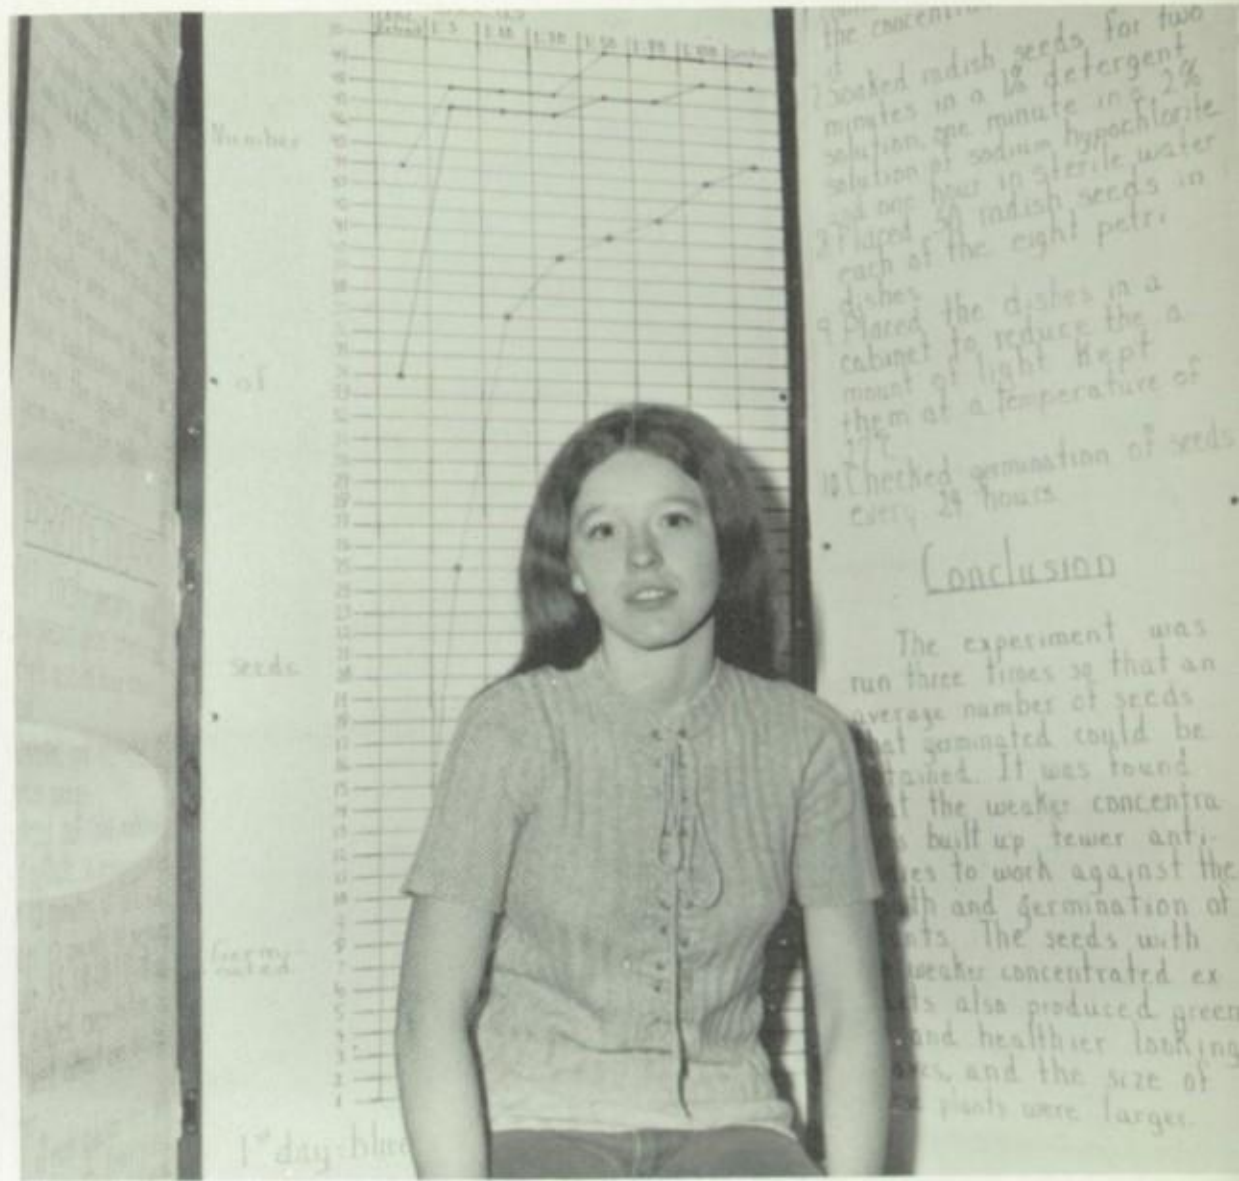

Hurry! I want to get a good seat!!

SCIENCE FAIR WINNERS MAKE A GOOD SHOWING

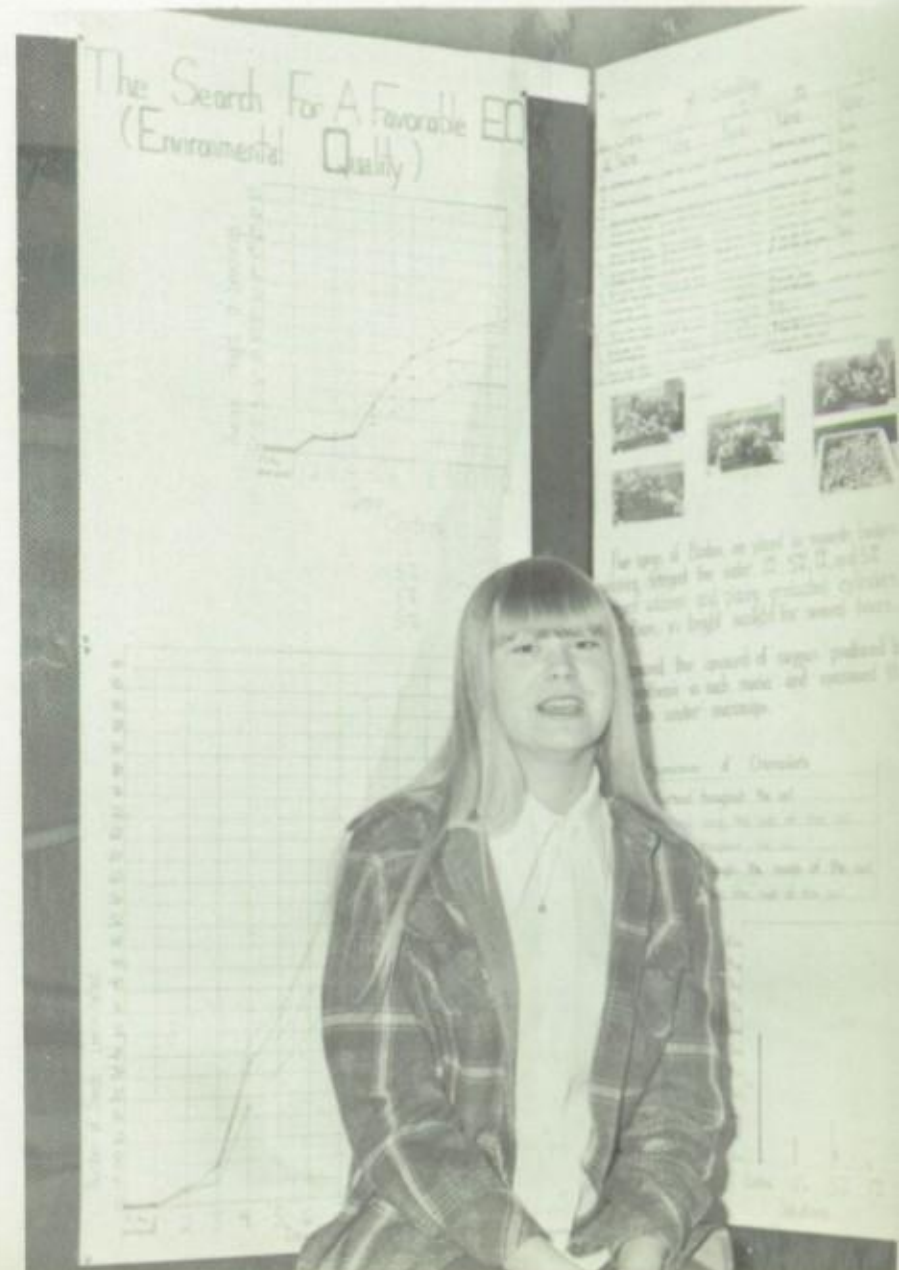

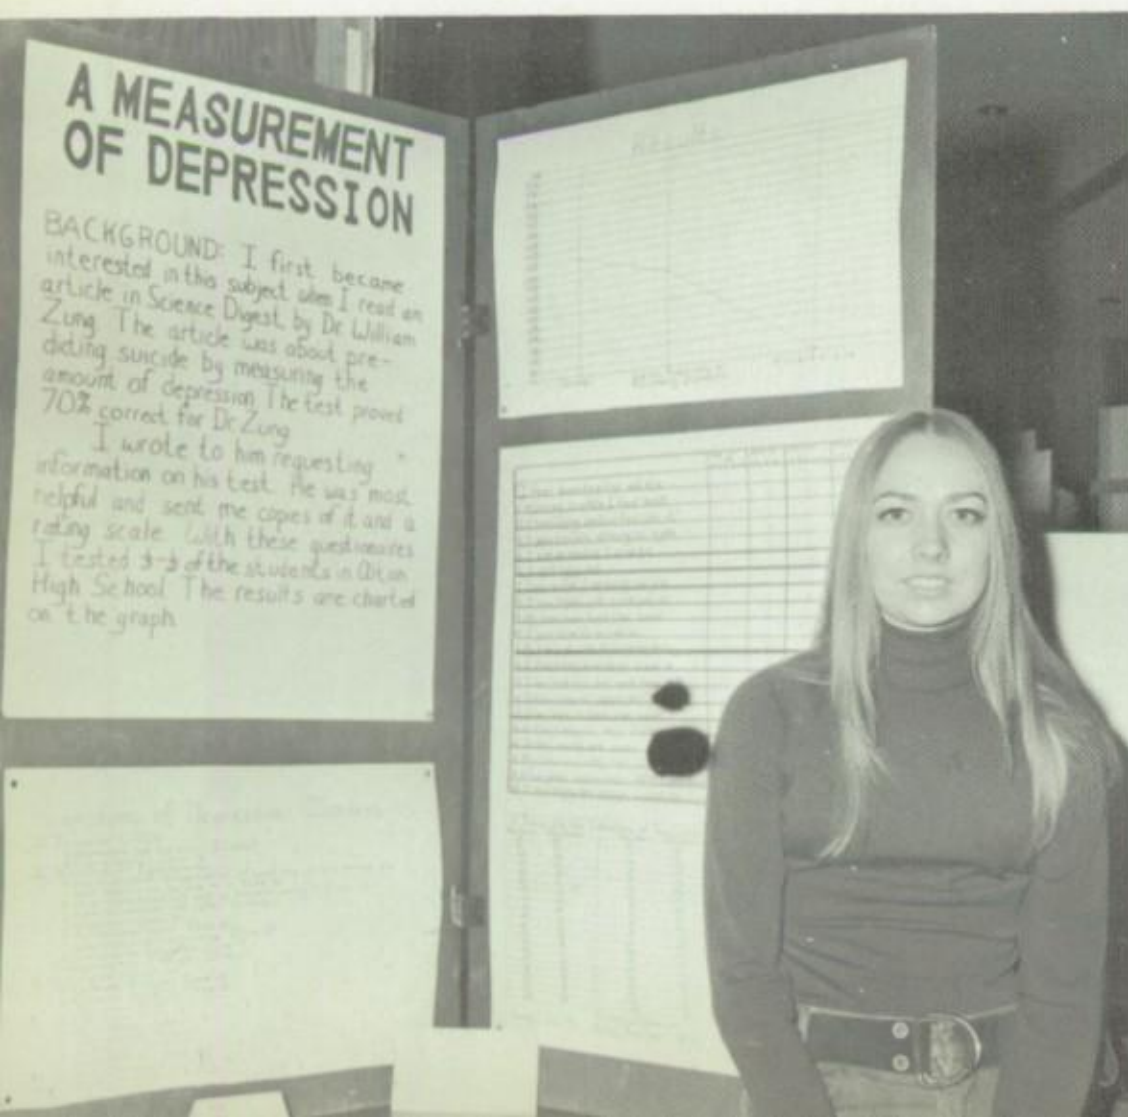

Steve Wallace received an Air Force award for Medicine and Health.

Saundra Smallwood placed 3rd in Botany.

BELOW: Teresa Cypret received Honorable Mention in Psychology. She also won a coveted Army Award.

Kelly Millsap placed 2nd in Botany.

Little did these science clubbers know what was in store for them!!

RIGHT: With six you get egg-roll!

THE SCIENCE CLUB TRIP PROVED "EVENTFUL"

Who says we can't pucker?

Saundra insisted on testing the Manor Inn's sleeping (bouncing) facilities the first thing!!

Was this before, or after, the ruggers and their party ?!?

ART SHOW ENTRIES PRESENTED HERE

Katie Blankenship exhibits her winning entries. She placed third in ink and honorable mention in tempera.

Mrs. Combs holds the first place winner in the mosaics division. It was created by Gloria Harris.

Several art students display some of the entries of the 1973 Alpha Rho Tau Art Show. The Art Show was held in Cabool this year, and members of the Art Club attended it.

SPRING FEVER HITS AHS

Now, now . . . bashfulness won't help at all!

These couples become rowdy as the "fever" progresses.

Pete seems to think that something's pretty funny. What about it, Pam?

Kathy Cates and Chris Bates grin like the proverbial Cheshire Cat now that summer is nearly here!

PHOTOGRAPHY STAFF WORKS HARD

David Strong, a three year darkroom veteran, focuses in on an interesting subject.

This is Sam Dallstream's first year as school photographer.

Carol Good and Susan Lance are also first year photography and darkroom staffers.

Photography is a very important aspect of our yearbook and paper publications. Staffers at AHS take their own pictures as well as printing and developing them. AHS is equipped with one of the finest school darkrooms in the area; students enjoy being part of the photography staff.

Faculty

Heading A. H. S. is the superintendent, ROBERT J. CLARK. Mr. Clark helps formulate and carry out school policies as well as supervise the general running of the school. Mr. Clark has been at A. H. S. nine years.

STRATION 1973

MR. GEORGE BOYD, A.H.S. Principal, is new here this year. With an eye to the future, he has initiated new programs and helped to modernize the curriculum. This has enabled today's students to gain the skill and the knowledge to succeed as leaders and citizens of tomorrow's ever changing world.

DOROTHY CLINE is the chief secretary.

RUTH McGARY is the principal's secretary.

FREDA WHITTEN is the Title I secretary.

The 1972-73 Board of Education was Hardin Franks, J. Q. Clary, Leroy Chronister, Phillip Jett, Wayne Johnson, and Jeff Griffith.

The secretaries are busy all day.

AHS COUNSELOR ALWAYS WILLING TO HELP

MRS. MARIANNE HUFSTEDLER

Mrs. Hufstedler helps students almost any time.

ENGLISH: AN INDISPENSIBLE TOOL

MRS. TINSLEY teaches English III and IV, speech and publications.

MRS. GUFFEY teaches English II and III and psychology.

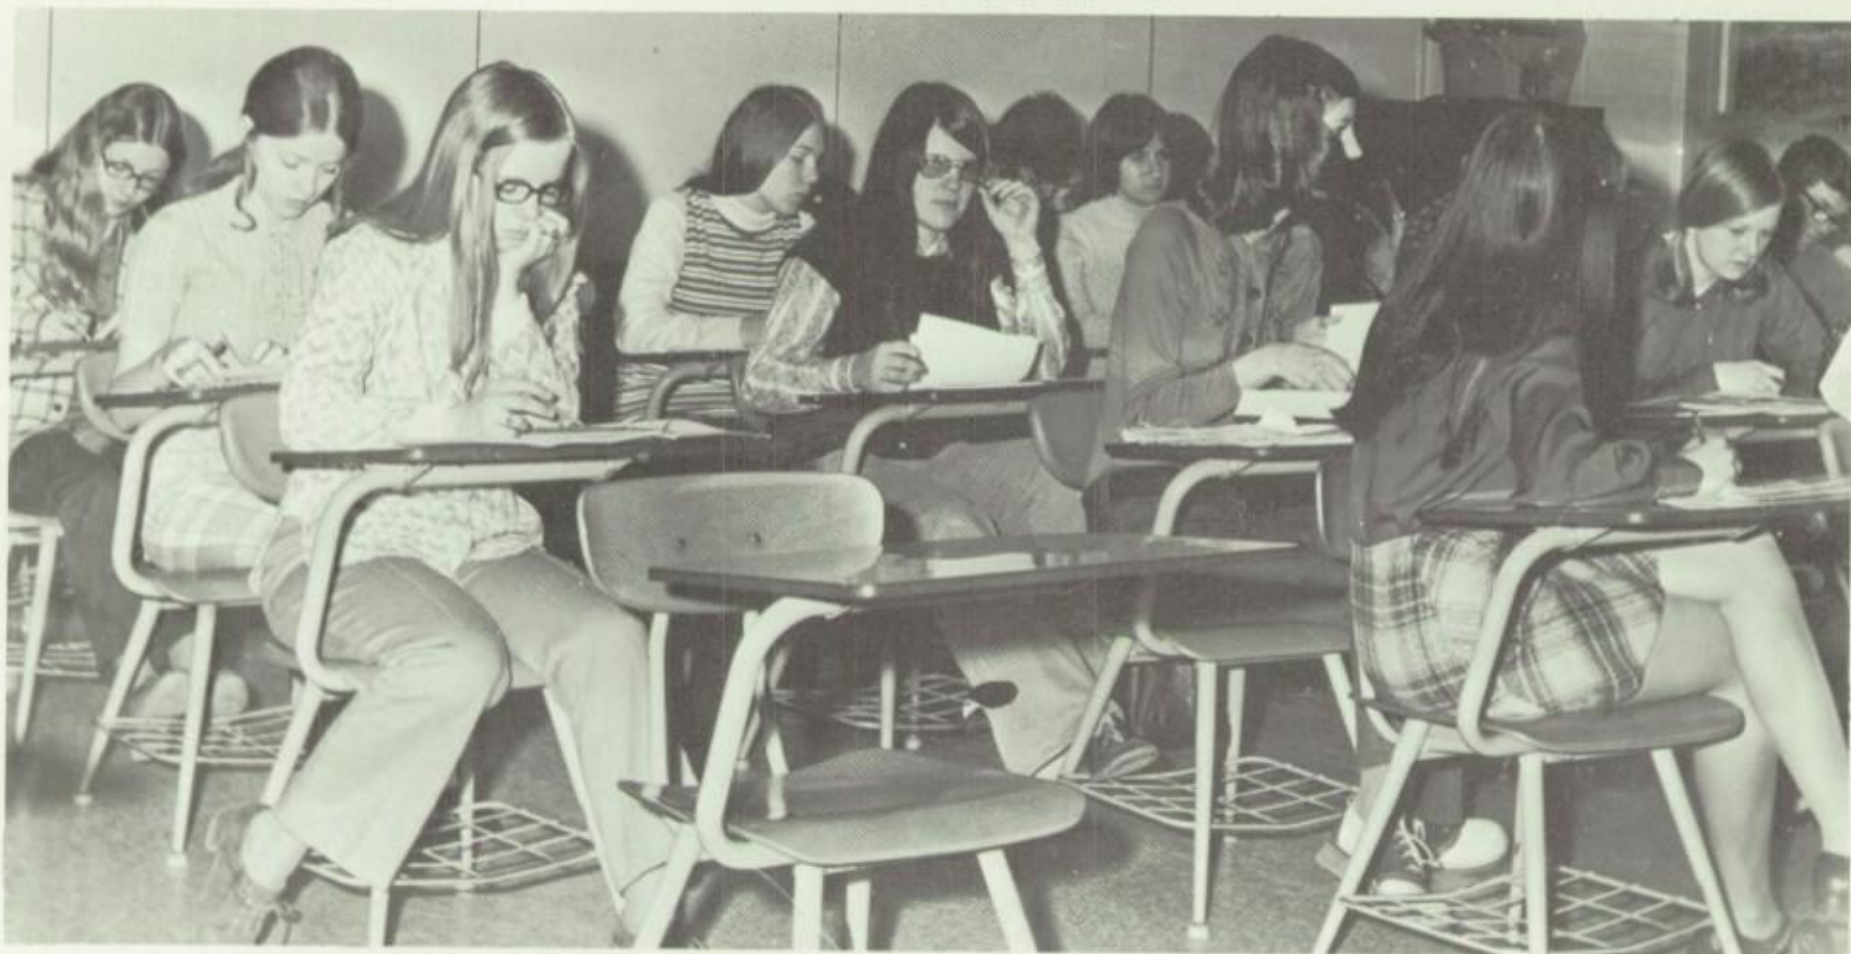

MR. WILLIAMS teaches English I and Citizenship classes.

Since English is an indispensable tool, its importance is stressed at A. H. S. In English classes students learn to express themselves both in conversation and on paper. Grammar and composition skills are taught along with many types of literature. English teachers are: Mrs. Maxine Tinsley, Mrs. Lovie Guffey, and Mr. Wendell Williams.

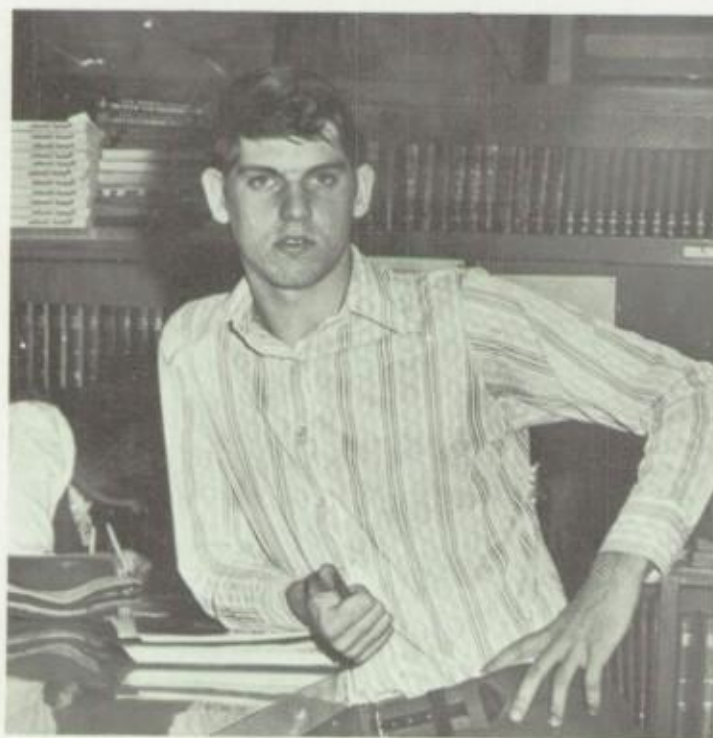

An English III class works on research theme outlines.

Mary Jo Richardson was chosen for Sophomore Pilgrimage.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HAS AN ACTIVE YEAR

Sophomores were involved in AHS, 1972-73. Many sophomores helped to win victories in basketball, volleyball, and baseball. Several were among groups to win ratings at District Speech, Music, and F.F.A. Contest and some even went on to State. They were involved in drama, art, and science department activities. Sophomores HAVE done their part in making this one of the most successful school years at AHS.
